Name : _____ Class : _____ Date : _____

Past Perfect Continuous Tense [Be Verbs]

[Sentence Structure]

Affirmative	Subject + had been being + adjective/noun (complement)
Negative	Subject + had not been + being + adjective/noun
Interrogative	Had + subject + been + being + adjective/noun?

[Solved Examples]

	Question	option (a)	option (b)
1	He had been being helpful all day.	True ✓	False
2	She had not been being careful.	True ✓	False
3	Had they been being patient before the meeting?	True ✓	False
4	We had being busy all morning.	True	False ✓

[Student Exercise]

1	I had been being nervous before the interview.	True	False
2	She had not been being honest with her parents.	True	False
3	Had they been being quiet before class?	True	False
4	The children had been being excited all morning.	True	False
5	He had not being polite during the meeting.	True	False
6	Had your father been being patient with you?	True	False
7	We had been being ready before noon.	True	False
8	The players had been being confident before the match.	True	False
9	She had not been being friendly lately.	True	False
10	Had you been being careful at work?	True	False
11	My brother had being lazy all weekend.	True	False
12	The weather had been being pleasant since morning.	True	False
13	Had the students been being respectful in class?	True	False
14	I had not been being serious about my studies.	True	False
15	Our teacher had been being supportive all year.	True	False
16	Had she been being kind to everyone?	True	False
17	They had been being noisy before the teacher arrived.	True	False
18	He had not been helpful before lunch.	True	False
19	Had we been being honest with each other?	True	False
20	The baby had been being cheerful all day.	True	False